

Distance with Massey – 101

Semester 2, 2014 (online only)

This orientation event is designed to give new distance students the means to prepare themselves for university study. By attending, students can find out how to access the resources to help them to be more confident in their study experience.

TUESDAY 1 JULY
TUESDAY 8 JULY (REPEAT)
THE UNIVERSITY ENVIRONMENT
7.00pm – 8.30pm	What does Distance study involve?
	Time is short! How should I organise my time?
	Accessing resources from the library
	Requesting for printed resources
WEDNESDAY 2 JULY
WEDNESDAY 9 JULY (REPEAT)
ACADEMIC LEARNING
7.00pm – 8.30pm	How do I become an active learner?
	What types of assessments will I be doing?
	Preparing for online tests
	Effective note taking strategies
THURSDAY 3 JULY
THURSDAY 3 JULY (REPEAT)
TECHNOLOGY IN LEARNING
7.00pm – 8.30pm	Finding information for a topic
	Using Stream to guide me
	SUPPORTING YOU IN YOUR LEARNING
	Services available to help you in your studies

To register for Distance with Massey 101, and for access information, visit our web page:

<http://owll.massey.ac.nz/about-OWLL/massey-distance-101.php>
